BIRCH BAY
DAYS!

This final event of the summer is right around the corner! Come and be a part of it. Opportunities include:

- Parade: We are looking for help decorating our float Friday, August 31 at the Ball Bayview RV Park at 7387 Jackson Rd, Blaine, WA 98230 (Birch Bay). Bring any balloons or decorative items you have on hand. Contact Bea Ball at 206-660-7161 for further float details. On Saturday, September 1, we invite children and adults, dressed as their favorite literary characters, to ride/walk along side the float. Please gather at 7567 Morrison Ave., Blaine (Birch Bay), just south of The C Shop. Contact Ruth Higgins about the staging at 360-393-3931 or birchbaycommunitylibraray@gmail.com.
- Booth, Sunday, September 2: A few more staff positions are available for enthusiastic members. The open slots are shown on the following table. Please contact Laura Allen at 971-570-8401 or l.b.allen@comcast.net to volunteer to serve. Guidelines and the history of the library effort are available at the booth.
